Dear Friend:

St. Louis is a great place for the arts and its synergy with the LGBTQ Community, plus it has an almost unlimited potential to become even better. This belief inspired the founding QFest, the Saint Louis LGBTQ Film Festival. I am proud to announce the third annual Saint Louis LGBTQ Film Festival: QFest 2010, which will take place March 28-31 at the Tivoli Theatre, 6350 Delmar Blvd. in the University City Loop. The primary mission of the film festival is to use the art of contemporary gay cinema to spotlight the diversity and inherent complexities of living an alternative lifestyle in today's society.

This year's QFest is presented by Cinema St. Louis, the Vital Voice, and YOUR NAME HERE! To make this festival thrive and grow, I need your help. I am looking for sponsors willing to open their wallets to show their community support of the art of the cinema arts. You can make a difference by supporting this event and making it a huge success and annual cultural celebration for our community.

The 2010 edition of QFest will present an eclectic and charming slate of 11 feature films (8 narrative and 3 documentaries), plus a handful of entertaining and provocative short subjects. The participating filmmakers represent some of the most powerful and talented voices in contemporary queer world cinema. For a full schedule see the attached document or visit our website at stlqfest.org.

We hope you will consider our request for a contribution toward QFest, the official LGBTQ Film Festival of St Louis. Your donation may be tax deductible and will brighten, challenge and hopefully enlighten the cultural landscape of our ever-changing community. At the very least please attend some of these fantastic films. Of course please tell all of your friends!

See you at the festival!
