

Friday, May 25, 2018

Centene Center for Arts and Education

Event proceeds support the year-round programming presented by Cinema St. Louis.

2018 Trivia Night Opportunities and Benefits

	Presenting Sponsor $1,000	Round Sponsor $200	Auction Item Donation
Exclusive naming rights on all event materials*	Logo recognition
Listing on event page of Cinema St. Louis (CSL) website	Logo recognition with link	Name recognition with link
Recognition on CSL social media	Dedicated post with link to social media account	Inclusion in trivia night post with link to CSL website
Verbal recognition at event	Welcome remarks	Applicable trivia round
Recognition in event-specific email to CSL supporters	Logo recognition	Name recognition
Complimentary table for 8 with branded table tent	1 table
Company banner displayed at event	Registration table
Listing on applicable trivia round*		Logo recognition
Listing on auction item bid sheet*			Name recognition

*Subject to print deadlines

For additional information, please contact

Bree Maniscalco, Cinema St. Louis Development Director
 314-289-4154
 bree@cinemastlouis.org

The mission of Cinema St. Louis is to showcase the best in international, documentary, and American independent cinema. Believing that we discover something about ourselves when we learn about others' cultures and perspectives, Cinema St. Louis offers programs that provide glimpses of the human experience from around the world and thoughtfully address issues of race, ethnicity, and sexual identity.