The 2ND Annual
Saint Louis LGBTQ Film Festival

22 Films • 8 Countries • 4 Days • OMG!

Presented by TLA Releasing and here! Films

QFEST 2009 Presented by TLA Releasing and here! Films

NEW MOVIES PREMIERE EVERY FRIDAY

QFEST 2009
March 15 – 18 • Tivoli Theatre • stlqfest.org

2009 Festival Sponsors

TAKE 20% OFF YOUR NEXT ORDER*!
USE SALE CODE: QFEST9
PHONE ORDERS: 888-TLA-DVDS (882-3837)
*Offer excludes shipping and any applicable taxes. This offer expires June 1st, 2009 at 11:59 PM ET.
Not valid for TLA Gift Cards. Cannot be combined with other offers.

TLA is proud to support the 2009 St. Louis QFest!
Sunday, March 15

1 p.m.

FON DE MER (Valerio Rizzotti, 2008, U.S.)

On December 14th, 2004, a tsunami wiped out San Francisco. A woman, washed ashore in a janitorial gear, is discovered and taken to a hospital. She is Emma, a boat captain of the Titan. Despite her wounding injuries, and the trauma that she has endured, she manages to escape. After a few weeks in the hospital, Emma, desperate to be away from the place of her trauma, sets out on a journey to the beach where her boat is. While on her journey, she meets a group of people who want to help her. Emma eventually finds her way back to her boat, and together they try to make it to safety.

Sponsored by the Newton Rising Wheel

2:45 p.m.

I CAN’T THINK STRAIGHT (Gurinder Chadha, 2007, U.K.)

Sita, a London-based Indian of Pakistani origin, prepares for an ethnology workshop with her fellow researchers. When the workshop is over, she returns home only to find her house on fire. She rushes to the hospital, where she meets a doctor who is ignoring her. She is Sita’s only friend, a woman who has been at the hospital before. Sita eventually finds her way to the police station, and there she meets a police officer who is trying to help her. Sita eventually finds her way back to her home, and there she meets a group of people who want to help her. Sita eventually finds her way to the police station, and there she meets a police officer who is trying to help her. Sita eventually finds her way back to her home, and there she meets a group of people who want to help her.

Sponsored by Garby Films

Monday, March 16

THE NEW WORLD (Shane Carruth, 2004, U.S.)

In a world where the gravity of the earth has been reversed, people must adapt to the new environment. In this world, a group of people are trying to build a society that is based on the principles of equality and freedom. They are trying to build a society that is based on the principles of equality and freedom.

Sloan School of Economics

WATERCOLORS (Roger S. Omeus, Jr., 2007, U.S.)

A young man is befriended by a young woman who is a painter. She is drawn to the young man’s artistic talent and is fascinated by his ability to create stunning works of art. She becomes his mentor, and together they try to make it in the art world. They are trying to make it in the art world.

Sponsored by Robin Schwartz and Jay Portz

WATERCOLORS (Roger S. Omeus, Jr., 2007, U.S.)

A young man is befriended by a young woman who is a painter. She is drawn to the young man’s artistic talent and is fascinated by his ability to create stunning works of art. She becomes his mentor, and together they try to make it in the art world. They are trying to make it in the art world.

Sponsored by Robin Schwartz and Jay Portz

Wednesday, March 17

BREAKFAST WITH SCOT (Laurie Lynd, 2007, Canada)

The story of a young gay man who finally comes out to his family. It is a touching and inspirational story of a young gay man who finally comes out to his family. It is a touching and inspirational story.

Sponsored by the Newton Rising Wheel

FINDING ME (Roger Ochs, 2007, U.S.)

In this thread, we find the first entry of a young boy who is on his journey of self-discovery and affirmation. He is also dealing with his bisexuality and his relationship with his family. He is also dealing with his bisexuality and his relationship with his family.

Sponsored by Roba Schwartz and Ray Portz

THANK YOU! 2009 Festival Sponsors, Feature Sponsors and Volunteers

For more information, visit www.digitalsprout.org.

FINDING ME (Roger Ochs, 2007, U.S.)

In this thread, we find the first entry of a young boy who is on his journey of self-discovery and affirmation. He is also dealing with his bisexuality and his relationship with his family. He is also dealing with his bisexuality and his relationship with his family.

Sponsored by Roba Schwartz and Ray Portz

THANK YOU! 2009 Festival Sponsors, Feature Sponsors and Volunteers

For more information, visit www.digitalsprout.org.

FINDING ME (Roger Ochs, 2007, U.S.)

In this thread, we find the first entry of a young boy who is on his journey of self-discovery and affirmation. He is also dealing with his bisexuality and his relationship with his family. He is also dealing with his bisexuality and his relationship with his family.

Sponsored by Roba Schwartz and Ray Portz

THANK YOU! 2009 Festival Sponsors, Feature Sponsors and Volunteers

For more information, visit www.digitalsprout.org.